

04M-6-1

Approved For Release 2002/05/20 : CIA-RDP79-01154A000600080015-1

SECRET

DDI
25 May 1965

MAJOR INTELLIGENCE OBJECTIVES

A. Management and Program Control

1. Better definition and allocation of responsibilities among agencies. (Revision of NSCIDs and DCIDs)
2. Measure performance and costing of collection and analysis activities.
3. Better allocation of resources to analytical and collection tasks, both intra and inter-agency.
4. Improve the structure and procedures of USIB.
5. Effect necessary organizational changes to meet revised responsibilities most effectively and economically.

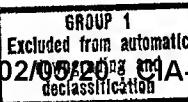

B. Collection

6. Continuing photo-surveillance of large areas.
7. Quick response photo-recce capability.
8. Improve AE detection capability.
9. Improve [redacted] SIGINT coverage.
10. Improve [redacted] SIGINT coverage.
11. Improve collection on [redacted]
12. [redacted]
13. Improve guidance and requirement procedures.

25X1D

25X1C

SECRET

Approved For Release 2002/05/20 : CIA-RDP79-01154A000600080015-1

SECRET

14.

15.

25X1C

C. Production and Analysis

16. Improved diagnosis and evaluation of space/missile events.
17. Comprehensive intelligence in depth on China.
18. Improved intelligence coverage of Africa.
19. Develop agreed community principles concerning external research on foreign areas.
20. Quick reaction, round the clock intelligence capability responsive to operational and crisis situations.
21. Review and improve programs for basic and environmental intelligence.
22. Improve the coordination and management of counter-intelligence activities.

D. Operations

23.

24.

25X1C

25. Develop realistic and coordinated emergency and contingency plans.

SECRET

SECRET

E. Support

26. Improved capabilities for processing information of all types.
27. Improved communication systems for Community.
28. Improved U.S. security posture.
29. Improved capabilities and facilities for training.
30. Improved coordination and control of research and development activities for intelligence purposes.

SECRET